Buzz & Bloom!

5 Activities for Art and Nature Lovers

Visit the Hilliard Art Museum to see the Nancy Macko: The Fragile Bee exhibition

Check out a library book on pollinators or plants.

Pollinator I Spy! How many pollinators can you count outside? (Look for bees, birds, butterflies, & moths!)

Find & sketch a plant that you see outdoors. After a week, go back & look at the same plant again. How has the plant changed?

Create a new sketch to compare the differences.

Visit the Hilliard Art Museum's Buzz & Bloom Play Day webpage & watch a video or do an art activity.
